

Addressing Inequalities in South Africa: Challenges and Opportunities

Wednesday November 30th, 2022
Location: FSJESS Conference Room

Program

10:15-10 :30 Registration

10:30 - 10 :45 Opening & Welcome of Participants
Pr. AZZEDINE GHOUFRANE, Dean of the School of Juridical, Economic and Social Sciences-souissi, Mohammed V University in Rabat

10:45 - 11:15 Addressing Inequalities in South Africa: Challenges and Opportunities
Moderation : Saloua Zerhouni, FSJESS, Mohammed V
University in Rabat

Speakers:

Economic Policy and Development in Africa (with a special emphasis on South Africa), Pundy Pillay, Professor of Economics and Public Finance, School of Governance, Wits University

Johannesburg: The most Unequal City in the World
Caryn Abrahams, Senior Lecturer, School of Governance, Wits University

Social Policy and Inequality in South Africa: Policy Attempts to Universalize the Health Care System
Robert Van Niekerk, Professor of Public Governance, Wits School of Governance

11:15 - 12:15 Discussion

12 : 15 Closing Remarks